Slip a sneak peek at new BCBG Max Azria store

So, despite the rumors and the crossed fingers, H&M did not move into the new Houston Pavilions downtown. While we wait for H&M to someday make an appearance, there are other stores to satiate your shopping fix. Tonight (Nov. 12) Houston Young People for the Arts are inviting shoppers to check out the new BCBG Max Azria store from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. before it opens to the public. Like all good parties, the HYPA event will serve wine and hors d'oeuvres from McCormick & Schmick's and shoppers can enter a drawing to win a $100 gift certificate courtesy of Houston Pavilions.

BCBG is on the second floor of the Pavilions and valet parking is available on Fannin or you can self park at Houston Pavilion's garage on Clay & Fannin.

Details: 1201 Fannin. 713-658-8938.
