

Blues Traveler

October 14, 2008

Enjoy

Housing crisis. House of Representatives. Your beach house in Galveston.

Let's face it – you haven't heard any good news on the housing front in quite some time. Get ready for a place that will rejuvenate your soul and fill your stomach. The House of Blues, the legendary music hall co-founded by Blues Brother Dan Aykroyd, just opened as part of downtown's massive new entertainment and shopping complex, Houston Pavilions. The live tunes and southern-inspired cuisine are sure to ease your troubles – check out indie rockers and Texas legends like Willie. For an extra dose of soul, hit the Sunday Gospel Brunch, coming next year, featuring talented singers and a buffet to match.

It might not restore your faith in the real estate market, but a little soul has serious healing powers.

House of Blues

Houston Pavilions
1204 Caroline Street
Houston, TX 77002
832.667.7732
www.hob.com

Live a Little

With any luck, you'll see hometown cutie Beyonce in the crowd. Jay-Z makes an H-town appearance to celebrate the opening of the House of Blues on Thursday, October 16. Standing room only concert tickets are $185, or you can party hip hop style by calling 832.667.7797 for VIP packages.

P.S. We couldn't let you miss out on this.

Houston's downtown has been totally reinvented! With the opening of Discovery Green and its surrounding hot spots, and now the hip Houston Pavilions, you'll experience our city's core like never before. Check out all the latest happenings in the brand new mag Downtown, available for free at many locations around town including Tart Cafe, Inversion Coffee and Amy's Ice Cream.

